Welcome to the SwiftStack Monthly Newsletter!

Hello,

Summer is approaching and Spring has seen a great deal of growth at SwiftStack. From our engagement as a Cisco Preferred Solution Partner at Cisco Live in June, to further developments with data management in healthcare, this newsletter has plenty of new things to share.

Respectfully,

SOLUTION BRIEF

Clinical Data Repository

In a 2017 study by the New England Journal of Medicine, 95% of health care IT executives identified clinical data as the most important data type in their organization. While these results should not come as a surprise, they do underscore the strategic value of storing, managing, and delivering clinical data to enhance patient care...

Examining Data Management Practices in Health Care – A Three Part Series – Part One: Data is the Lifeblood of every Health Care Provider
By Greg Govatos
When you think about organizations that are responsible for managing massive volumes of critical data, which ones come to mind? Many people's initial response is "a hospital", due to the way patient care has been revolutionized by technology and the multitude of data sets this technology creates…
